Dear Mr. Warren,

I am sorry for not writing sooner but I've been extremely busy, working in Lowndes County and moving back and forth between Alabama, Mississippi, and Georgia. I just read your article in Commentary two weeks ago. It was a very accurate representation, although I must admit that I have changed my views since that interview.

I received the copy of Who Speaks for the Negro, but I'm unable to give you my opinion on it since I have not had the time to read it. Hopefully, one of these days, I'll sit down with it since I am extremely interested in what it says. Thank you for sending me the copy.

I'm leaving in a few minutes for Washington, D.C., and can be reached through the SNCC office there. I plan to remain until the end of the month. I'll return to Alabama in the beginning of July, and my address will be Selma SNCC. Vaguely, I remember an appointment we discussed, but I never received any follow-up on it so I assumed that it was cancelled. I hope I am correct and did not inconvenience you. I'll be in constant contact with the above addresses if you would like to get in touch with me.

Yours for Freedom,

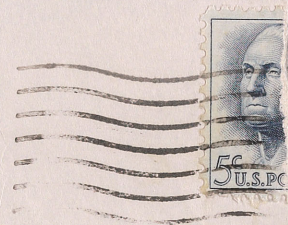

Stokely
